

APPLICATIONS FOR THE EUROPUBHEALTH+ MASTER FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

In my previous studies, courses were taught in English - do I still need to provide an English language certificate ?

If you are applying for a first year in Dublin or Sheffield and/or a second year specialisation in Paris, Krakow or Maastricht, you may be exempted from providing an English proficiency proof only if you are in one of the two following situations:

- if you are citizen of a majority native English speaking country: Antigua and Barbuda, Australia, The Bahamas, Barbados, Belize, Canada, Dominica, Grenada, Guyana, Ireland, Jamaica, New Zealand, St Kitts and Nevis, St Lucia, St Vincent and the Grenadines, Trinidad and Tobago, United Kingdom, United States of America.
- if you hold a previous higher education degree taught in English in a majority native English speaking country* as listed above.

**Specific condition for Canada: Applicants may provide a Canadian degree so long as they supply sufficient proof from the institution that the degree was taught and examined in English.*

If you are applying for a first year foundation course in Granada or Liège AND a second year specialisation in Granada or Rennes, you may be exempted from providing an English proficiency proof if you hold a previous higher education degree fully taught in English

Any applicant who does not meet any of the above-mentioned conditions must provide valid English proficiency proof (applications without a valid language proficiency proof will not be considered).

I am exempted from providing an English language proficiency proof. Which document should I attach to my application then ?

If you do fall under one of the categories described on the Europubhealth+ website for candidates exempted from providing an English language proficiency proof, please attach:

- A copy of your passport if you are a citizen of a majority native English speaking country (the list is available on our website under the "Admission requirements" section)
